

HONOR ROLLS

Student achievement will be recognized through the publication of scholastic honor rolls for Laconia Middle and Laconia High Schools. At Laconia high School, High Honors with Distinction will be for students achieving a non-weighted grade point average of 95 or above. High honors will be for students achieving a non-weighted grade point average of 90-94. Honors will be for students achieving a non-weighted grade point average of 83-89. At Memorial Middle School a student can be on the honor roll if they have grades above a “c” in all classes and an overall grade point average of 3.0, Honors would be all “A” and “B”, and High Honors would be all “A”.
